For Today: A Spiritual Lighthouse

One foggy night, a U.S. carrier was sailing off the coast. Seeing a light in the distance, the captain of the ship called over the radio and said, "Please divert your course 15 degrees south to avoid a collision."

A voice came over the radio in reply, "We recommend you divert your course 15 degrees north to avoid a collision."

The captain said again, "This is the captain of a U.S. Navy Ship. I say again, divert your course."

In defiance, the voice on the other line said, "No. I say again, you divert YOUR course."

Frustrated and angry, the Navy captain said once again, "THIS IS A UNITED STATES AIRCRAFT CARRIER. WE ARE A LARGE WARSHIP OF THE US NAVY. DIVERT YOUR COURSE NOW!"

This time, he heard in reply, "We are a light house. It's your call."

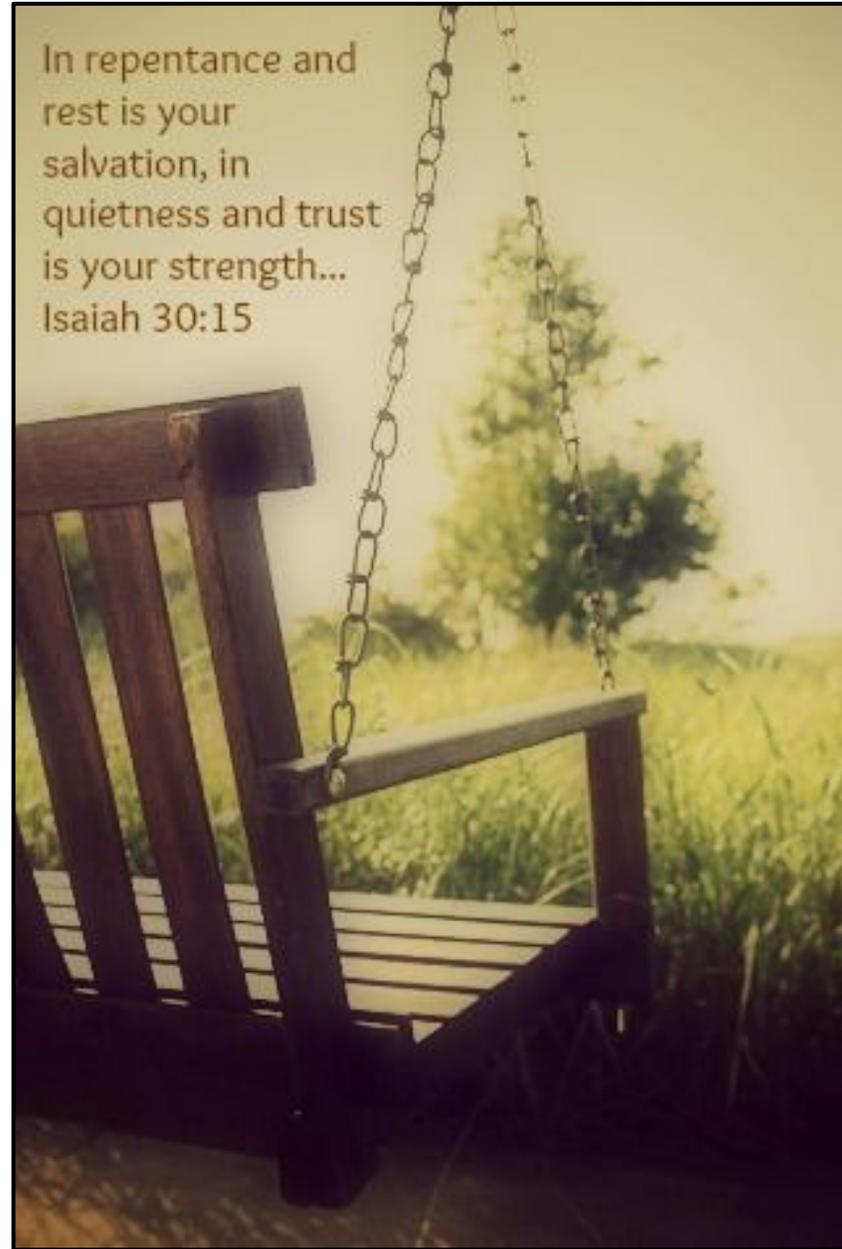

While it's a humorous story, the message is an important one. We had better heed lighthouses. They provide a light and a place to direct ships to a safe harbor.

Every seventh day, Saturday, we set aside our weekly work and keep the Sabbath. We meet together with those who share this understanding at a religious service as we come to worship God on the day He instructed us to keep holy (Exodus 20:8-11).

Sabbath can be considered as a spiritual lighthouse, for it is a day the Creator made special and on which we remember the spiritual light He provides while we rest from our labors. It also reminds us of a place to seek a safe harbor in a stressful world and to spiritually refresh ourselves. Furthermore, the Sabbath is a place to fellowship with like-minded people, who respect the spiritual light and instruction that God turns on every Sabbath for us to remember and honor Him.

In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust
is your strength...
Isaiah 30:15
